

1st Young Scientists* Forum on Central and South East Europe
December 4-6, 2008
Vienna, Austria

“System changes of South East European societies: Social, political and demographic consequences”

CALL FOR APPLICATION

The Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna, is organizing the Young Scientists Forum on Central and South East Europe

Aims of the project:

- Motivation and reinforcement of young scientists to engage in the region Central and South East Europe;
- Presentation of research projects for the public;
- Promoting exchange of information and creation of networking;
- Promotion of mobility;
- Publication of the lectures in a well-known journal;

Target group:

Young scientists from/residing in Austria, Central and South East Europe dealing with South East Europe* in the fields of economics, geography, history, law, political sciences and sociology.

Date and location:

The symposium will take place in December 4-6, 2008 in Vienna.

Program:

- Lectures by high level experts and young scientists;
- Presentation of research papers/projects prepared by the participants;
- (Plenary) discussions;
- Information on EU measures of promotion of science;
- Excursion on the 6th of December

Applications:

Applications for participation may be handed in by e-mail until April 1st, 2008 and should include a CV and an abstract (2 pages) of the research project/paper that shall be presented and discussed at the symposium.

Subsidy for travel expenses can be granted in selected cases.

Low-budget accommodation is organised by IDM, the costs can be granted in selected cases.

Language: English

Applications should be sent to:

Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM)

Ms. Gejsi Plaku

e-mail: g.plaku@idm.at

* Young scientists up to 35 years

* Including: Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Kosovo, Montenegro, Republic of Macedonia, Romania, Serbia, Slovenia